Welcome to ic-news – pages that matter to Cleveland’s Jewish teens!

In the section titled “Cleveland” on the icnext web page, the current crop of Cleveland Jewish teens! is presented. In addition to that, current page reflects on the previous 20 days since the trip to Israel, and current comment on current issues of interest to Cleveland teens. We are doing ongoing source of news about the community, Jewish teens and Israel. We continue to bring you the latest news, updates and events.

We made a massive pile of luggage, the Israeli teens who came to Cleveland were able to teach Israelis about American culture and food, and made American teens understand the politics, culture, and food of Israel.

To say I wasn’t nervous would be a lie. Personal connection allows us to better understand the culture of Jews and Israelis, the reality of the Israel conflict, and more. There will be photos that document their 10-day adventure through the summer of 2017, and look forward to what that document current events, whether in Cleveland or Israel. icnext is a two-year program that educates Cleveland’s Jewish high school students from all denominations in the core issues of Israeli society and the geopolitical situation in today’s Israel. icnext is a project of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland, administered through @akiva for information about how to apply for icnext, contact Tina Keller at @akiva.

Although Policy Conference only lasted a short 3 days, I learned more in those 3 days about foreign policies and how the American government views the U.S.-Israel relationship than I have in any classroom. 10,000 pro-Israel advocates from different backgrounds, cultures, and faiths came together to celebrate the one thing that we all have in common: our love for the Jewish state. icnext is a project of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland, administered through @akiva. for more information, go to www.akiva.org

From Israel advocacy, leadership training and education, to excellence in Jewish theater and musical theater, icnext is a 2-year program that educates students in the core issues of Israel today and prepares them for Israel related/anti-Semitic challenges on college campuses. icnext is a project of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland, administered through @akiva.
